I also remember back when Minecraft was first released, how difficult it was to find anyone who was willing to play with you or help you if your work didn't work out; but I did find my lovely wonderful best friend through Roblox and we play together every single day. Even though there is no one on my friends list, I can still go into Roblox and join a game with other people. When I do that, my friend will always join me if she's in the same room. But even so, I never have any actual friends in-game because it becomes a very lonely experience as time progresses.

It teaches them how to be helpful, creative, and patient. I am writing about Roblox today because I am fairly new to the game and am trying to get used to it. I have had Roblox for about 6 months now, and I am sort of over it. However, I really love the game. It is a creative game where you can design an avatar and have a house to decorate. I just wanted to write this because I know there are a lot of people who have been searching for my story on Roblox. Everyone has their own opinions on the game, but as soon as I found out that my parents were coming to visit me on Friday, I found out that they were going to be seeing where I spend most of my time playing games online: namely <https://www.roblox.com/>. I was very and extremely shocked that I hadn't clicked on the site before this - it means I really could have been playing the game for a lot longer. A lot of my friends have played this game and now I'm starting to understand why they say it's such an addicting game!
