ROBLOX released its first Android app on October 13, 2021. The app is currently available in English and has over 2 million downloads on Google Play. It was launched for iOS on December 17, 2021. The application allows players to create games and play previously published ones, but does not allow for publishing of user made items or models. On May 30, 2021 ROBLOX released a new version of its app called Ava (ROBLOX's Mobile Application). See above section for more details.

I guess the only reason I still play Roblox is because it's a free game and that I don't have to pay for anything. After all, what's the point of saving up your money if you have to spend it all just to try and get on a game you really want to play? There are many games out there that arent free like Minecraft, but at least they give you some sort of advantage. For example, Minecraft gives you tools which can help you dig more efficiently and quickly. But Roblox doesn't provide any sort of help or assistance towards the gameplay itself. And it's not like Minecraft was designed with children in mind; it was created for adults.

On November 7, 2021, Roblox released their first real let's play channel, but it only lasted a couple of months before Roblox cancelled its plans for let's play channels. It stars RandomPlayer as he plays a wide variety of games on ROBLOX, including many popular games such as Angry Birds and Zombieland.

ROBLOX does not allow players below the age of 13 than sign up for an account. This is because of the maturity level that ROBLOX expects all players to have. ROBLOX does not allow users to make profanity in the game and the server does not allow it, however there are many areas on the game and on their website that do, such as chat boxes in games. They have also recently added a filter button which blocks certain words from appearing in chat. This feature was created to block words that appear to be offensive and potentially harmful at times.[42]

According to the ROBLOX website, there are over 15 million registered and active players. Like many other user-generated content sites for young children, ROBLOX encourages users to be safe and responsible on its site. It also has a moderation system that allows members of the community to report profiles and comments that may be inappropriate or offensive. Parents can also choose what games their kids can play, or even disable chat so other players can't talk to their child. ROBLOX has also introduced a new feature called "Guardians" which works like parental controls on most software. It allows players to set a game rating they are comfortable with, so that they can choose between games.

The ROBLOX site and forum have received a lot of criticism from its users regarding many issues, such as: Administrators are able to delete user-created games without warning or notice. Users can't defend themselves since the only way they could do so is by contacting an administrator or lawyer. Administrators can ban users for doing anything they don't like or don't agree with. However, administrators have been known to ban users for no reason at all, usually if the user is a moderator or an insignificant/low-level user.

Roblox is the currency used on many games running in the ROBLOX Universe, such as RarestMonsters and BLOXelation. It was first introduced in 2021 for the game Shooting Challenge 2. In April 2021, ROBLOX introduced a feature referred to as "LocalScripts." LocalScripts enable users to locally execute C# code in-game. They can be used to access the hardware of a device running the game, or manipulate specific parts of the game. For example, by using LocalScripts, developers can create weapons that change their firing rate depending on how fast you pull the trigger.

The next game to have a monetary currency was Habbo Hotel where they introduced Habbo Coins which are used for buying furniture, clothing, and accessories. ROBLOX is the first major 3D based social network game. It would later be followed up by games like There in late 2021 and Toontown Online on September 26th of 2021.
