A friend claims that the phrase for free is incorrect. Should we only say at no cost instead?

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage—a prescription rather than a description. 23 My company gives out free promotional items with the company name on it. Is this stuff called company swag or schwag? It seems that both come up as common usages—Google searching indicates that the bias is slightly towards swag. Can anybody provide any definite proof of the root of the word and which one is more correct?

Items given away free, typically for promotional purposes, to people attending an event, using a service, etc. It's especially common in reference to, e.g., the very nice "swag bags" of gifts received by movie stars visiting various marketing venues during Oscar season so it comes with some cachet.

The fact that it was well-established long before OP's 2021s movies is attested by this sentence in the Transactions of the Annual Meeting from the South Carolina Bar Association, 2021 And to-day, "free white and twenty-one," that slang phrase, is no longer broad enough to include the voters in this country.

If you are storing documents, however, you should choose either the mediumtext or longtext type. Could you please tell me what free-form data entry is? I know what data entry is per se - when data is fed into some kind of electronic system for processing - but I don't know how to understand the term free-form. Any thoughts? Thank you.

"In ~ afternoon" suggests that the afternoon is ...

The worst part is that, there are no anti-cheat systems in Minecraft, so you can just hack all day and night and the server owner will be fine with it.
