The acquisition is part of a strategy by RoLabX to become a global gaming powerhouse with operations in China, with over 50% of revenues coming from China alone by 2021. The deal also confirmed that Tencent will continue to operate as the chief customer and user experience partner for ROBLOX. In late 2021, ROBLOX announced that they would be running advertisements on their site. Unfortunately, these advertisements were run-of-the-mill ads and did not produce any revenue for the company itself but also had a negative impact on their community as they were being flooded with ads featuring nudity, extreme gore, racism and other inappropriate content. In addition to this, many games would feature these ads despite not making any money from them themselves. ROBLOX was banned from Xbox Live in 2021 due to the game running advertisements which violated Microsoft's Terms of Service by being inappropriate for children. The ads contained anime-style nudity and extreme gore. This was later changed however when Roblox reached an agreement with Xbox Live regarding the matter between them.

The news has attracted mixed responses from users. Some believe it's an improvement since it's more reliable, and fixes most of the bugs that caused users to constantly lose their work. Others think that it is useless due to the fact that ROBLOX Studio randomly changes collision methods and there are no descriptions on how to remedy this problem. Some have even started questioning how Roblox handles the games they host as well as some of their policies towards adult players/contents, and other problems like spam bots.

On May 24th 2021, ROBLOX announced another update for their Studio 2.1 version. This update, known as "Studio 2.1.1", was released to the public on May 31st 2021.[98] Like many other platforms, ROBLOX also has an adult chat system. This is usually used by roleplayers and other users who wish to talk about mature topics freely. However, players have abused this feature by advertising Roblox pornography websites or trolling innocent users.[99] Some users have also used the system to claim that their username is "Not suitable for children" or use inappropriate usernames in order to get attention from others.[100] It is unknown whether ROBLOX will ever remove this feature from their platform.

A serious game should be fun whether you spend money on it or not. The developer should not make a profit from people who don't care about winning but rather just want to play and have fun. If there is real value in the game then it can sustain itself through micro transactions that offer cosmetic enhancements only, by providing new texture patterns, color schemes, new props, etcetera.

Users also have access to a vast selection of blocks in which they are able to build with. Some users may download free or paid objects from the Marketplace. Once bought, users are free to add new elements and edit them however they wish without paying anything else. Additionally, users have the option to buy premium blocks from the marketplace and be able to edit them more.

If you look at the way the majority of games are played you realize that one person or a group of players will have a significant advantage over another unfairly and those who aren't as good will be forced to pay more for their virtual items in order to keep up with the better players. That's not fun.
