I want to make a official call and ask the other person whether he is free or not at that particular time. I think asking, "Are you free now?" doesn't sound formal. So, are there any alternatives to...

In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years suggests that the English-speaking world has become more receptive to using "free of" in place of "free from" during that period.

What is the opposite of free as in "free of charge" (when we speak about prices)? We can add not for negation, but I am looking for a single word.

6 For free is an informal phrase used to mean "without cost or payment." These professionals were giving their time for free. The phrase is correct; you should not use it where you are supposed to only use a formal sentence, but that doesn't make a phrase not correct.

The choice of prepositions depends upon the temporal context in which you're speaking. "On ~ afternoon" implies that the afternoon is a single point in time; thus, that temporal context would take the entire afternoon as one of several different afternoons, or in other words, one would use "on" when speaking within the context of an entire week. "In ~ afternoon" suggests that the afternoon is ...

1 I was looking for a word for someone that is really into getting free things, that doesn't necessarily carry a negative connotation. I'd describe them as: that person that shows up to random meetings in college just for the free pizza. someone willing to send in postcard entries to a sweepstakes (instead of buying some product).

I downloaded Robloxian Life from the App Store (it is free). After creating my character, I found myself in an unfamiliar location. There were trees everywhere! No sidewalks or buildings to view through my character's eyes. I began to look around for landmarks so I could find my house. Soon, I found it. An old abandoned house; the perfect place for me to live and work in the game! There were no other houses around, so I thought this one was mine! It wasn't long after my character had moved in that another player decided to move into my house. They didn't like my treehouse. They wanted to build a new house where there were trees and nobody could see inside. I thought it was a great idea! The next day, they created a new building and started working on an addition to the house themselves. Soon enough, our houses were completely different from each other; each one had its own unique features and decorations. After a couple days, I decided as the "host" of both houses that I wanted to make them look alike. I bought my friend's house and used the money to buy some items and paint to change his house into mine. The next day I was playing Robloxian Life, only to find out that my new house had been destroyed by one of my friends during the night. He asked me why I had changed his home. He said he liked his original house better than mine. Somehow, he managed to get at my items and destroy everything I had built in one night. I had no choice but to remove him from the game. I never really wanted to keep the house he destroyed, so I got it demolished and sold.
