ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

The first product launched by ROBLOX was "Builders Club" on May 21, 2021 which allowed players to create 3D environments and watch other players' creations online. This product was followed by "Dance Off" on November 29, 2021. Both of these games had been in development since the launch of the website; "Dance Off" being originally named "Crazy Dance Fight". In 2021, ROBLOX launched a new line of products called "Roblox Toys". The first and only one to be released at that time was "Helicopter", which was shipped in December 2021.

In February 2021, it was reported that a game called "Miner's Haven" has been criticized by Roblox users for having a suicide feature where players would have the option of killing themselves when their health reached zero. The players who played this game received a message from the developer named Master Zen said that he was working on an update that removed this feature. The update was released in March 2021 and it included an anti-suicide feature where the health would reset to 100 instead of 0. However, the developer confirmed that he would "still allow players to commit suicide if they are in the mood". To make up for this issue, Master Zen released a series of development updates that included fixing bugs and adding new features to "Miner's Haven".

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of support for users who are victims of scams and other forms of theft. Some samples include: A user by the name of EthanSteele has recently had his full game, "The Quest" stolen by someone else and renamed "Game Start". He made an appeal to ROBLOX's administrators on Reddit asking that he be given back his prototype so that he could resume development on it but they banned him and closed his case. Another example was the theft of a user's game, "The Polaroid Project", by another user who put it on a free-to-play model for the purpose of making money.

The community is somewhat mature. As far as social media goes, I do not personally think that roblox holds much of a candle in terms of maturity when compared to the likes of Twitter or Facebook - but it certainly does not have the childish undertone that you would find on other sites such as Instagram or snapchat either. It has a decent kid-friendly community that is mostly neutral.

On October 10, 2021, Roblox announced that they will be selling 49% of their ownership stake to Tencent Holdings for $100 million. The deal is subject to approval by the Roblox board of directors and Tencent before it goes into effect.
