According to the ROBLOX website, there are over 15 million registered and active players. Like many other user-generated content sites for young children, ROBLOX encourages users to be safe and responsible on its site. It also has a moderation system that allows members of the community to report profiles and comments that may be inappropriate or offensive. Parents can also choose what games their kids can play, or even disable chat so other players can't talk to their child. ROBLOX has also introduced a new feature called "Guardians" which works like parental controls on most software. It allows players to set a game rating they are comfortable with, so that they can choose between games.

The territory restriction on new accounts for "TERA" was lifted in June 2021. At that time, players were also given a free transfer to a North American account. In February 2021, En Masse Entertainment announced plans to merge servers for "TERA" and also announced additional details about Season 2 of "TERA: Rising". The merger began on March 11 with servers down for two hours beginning at 5 am Pacific Time (8:00 UTC). This was followed by two more short downtimes on March 17 and March 26 before all character transfers were completed. The merger of servers resulted in the creation of a single player vs. player server and a single role-playing server. The role-playing server was created to stop the underpopulated game world from splitting into two more servers.[62]

In the ROBLOX Studio game, you can publish a game that contains the Free Builder's Club item and make it for sale. You will receive 50% of the profit from every sale (however, if someone buys your item and then buys it again later on with their own Robux or Builder's Club, you will not receive any more money).

ROBLOX has also been criticized on another level. Many people have said that they will never use ROBLOX again after the lack of response from the administration team. This is because even after reporting rule breakings, there is still no action taken against the players who do so. This has caused people to lose respect for the administration team.
