On March 22, 2021, it was announced that it's been awarded a Guinness World Record for being the most popular game creation platform. On June 25, 2021, Roblox released a statement concerning maximum levels of moderation following controversy surrounding "Miner's Haven" as well as other role-playing games.

One of the most popular ROBLOX games was "Hacker Escape", which was one of the most visited blogs on ROBLOX prior to 2021. It was a game where the hacker got into an abandoned house, and used numerous exploits to obtain admin privileges, allowing him/her to modify certain aspects of the game. This blog caused heavy controversy in 2021 because it allowed hackers to manipulate and change the settings on their games without consent from ROBLOX. However, after the release of version 1.0, this blog became outdated because developers started using hacks in their games that had not been discovered yet. In May 2021, ROBLOX launched a new blog system to replace the previous one, this paid-for feature was created by Epic Events Inc.

In August 2021, a former employee posted a blog post detailing the company's "toxic" work culture and poor working conditions. The employee claimed that she was fired after speaking out about these issues and later filed a wrongful termination lawsuit against the company as well as several co-workers associated with her firing. The suit, which for the most part was dismissed, claimed that former CEO David Baszucki played an integral role in her firing as he forced the team to "ignore basic standards of professionalism". It also cited him for saying that "female workers in [his] office and in the tech industry were 'annoying' and should not serve in a high-ranking position."

Robux. Robux is the currency of roblox that can be purchased with real money, although there are also other ways to receive them within the system of roblox itself. The way they work is very simple - you can use Robux to purchase in-game items, such as clothes for your character or even full-on animations such as dances and others. This adds a form of virtual economy to the game which adds depth and meaning into it - although the impact of the impact that this has on the game can be debated heavily depending on who you talk to. This means that, while there is a sense of the possibility of winning content within the game - there is no chance of getting content without paying for it.
